Festival time: Let the party begin!

By IVAN HELFMAN
MCN Staff Writer

You don't fool with success. That's why this year's Westland Festival is offering the same mixture of free family activities, carnival rides, fireworks and entertainment that has made enabled the area's largest summertime celebration to draw 250,000 visitors in previous years.

The festival is such an attraction that last year Gov. John and Michelle Engler showed up with their triplets.

"Our festival is so popular for two reasons," said Ken Mehl, One, there's a tremendous amount of things to do for all kinds of people. Two, there's enough free activities that a family can come and have a good time without having to spend money, if they don't want to," said Ken Mehl, perennial festival committee member.

Examples include the Saturday morning kids picnic and an all-day Saturday kids tent featuring clowns, a magic show, and a quiz show.

The committee also took care to provide have a variety of music for all tastes, ranging from MCN's own Benny and the Jets oldies rock band (who appeared yesterday) to The Jacob Ramig Band's polka music 4:30-6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Also performing are RPM (classic rock), 7-11 p.m. tonight; Bobby Lewis & the Cracker Jack Band (eclectic), 7-11 p.m. Friday; Josh Gracin (country), 3-5 p.m. Saturday; Phil Graham Trio (easy listening), 6:30-8:30 p.m. Saturday inside the Bailey Center; Art-of-Fact (eclectic), 7-11 p.m. Saturday; JC Band (oldies), 1:30-4:30 p.m. Sunday; Lonestar Dancers (country), 6-9 p.m. Sunday; and Young Country (country), 7-11 p.m. Sunday.

Today and tomorrow's events include the Bingo and Vegas tents, opening at 6 p.m.

Friday, the festal opens again in the afternoon, along with Bingo and Vegas activities. Visitors will also love the Jacob Ramig Polka Band in the early evening, followed by the "Bubby Lewis" Band.

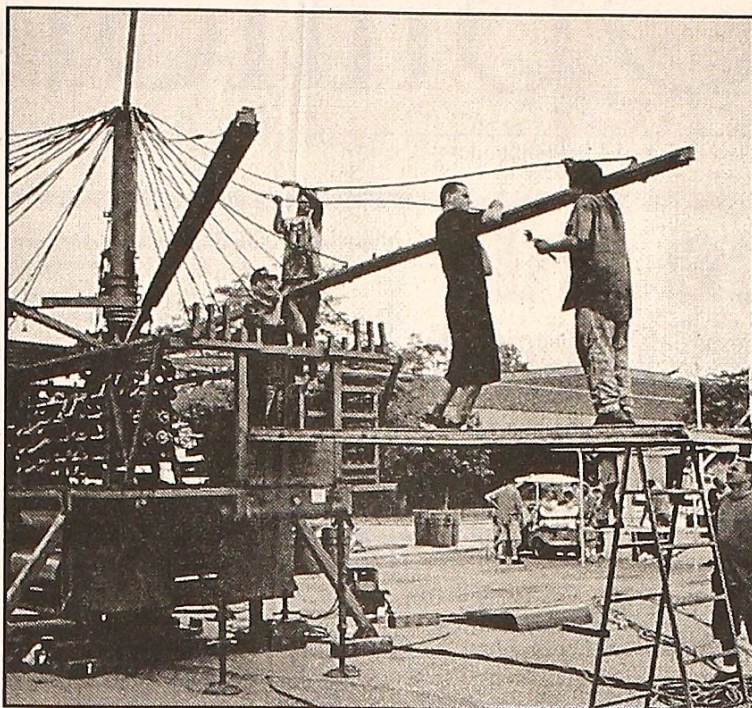

Saturday, the Quality Movers Car Show and the Civitans' children's picnic, with games and activities for young families begins, at 10 a.m. The kids' tent opens at 11 a.m., and will feature magic shows and a game show, with start times throughout the entire day. At 1 p.m., the pie eating contest takes the stage. The legs contest for those 16 and older follows at 2 p.m.

with contestants aged 16-years-old and older.

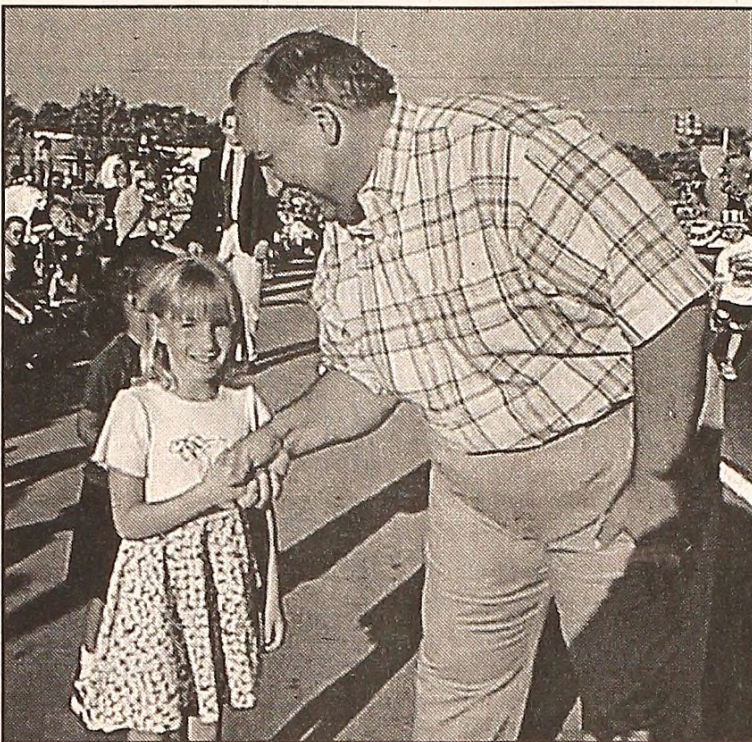

Sunday opens at 9 a.m. with the Celebrating God service, which is followed by a continental breakfast at 10. Finals for the most beautiful baby and toddler contest will be held from 10:30 a.m. to noon. Once again, children are welcome to the kids' tent. Bingo, Vegas, and the Horseshoe and Golf Chipping contests lead into the fireworks, which start at dark.

Except for the carneys who keep their profits (to upgrade their tattoos?), all proceeds from the festival that aren't used to pay for it are donated to, among other things, handicapped kids, area burn centers, figure skaters, and tree plantings in city parks.

"The festival is put on by all volunteers," said Mehl. "Though this sounds corny to say, we all get satisfaction seeing people and families having fun together on one weekend where everybody is together and there are no hassles."

Carneys finish assembling rides.

Gov. John Engler showed up at last year's Festival parade.

Boys/Girls Club offers summer schedule hours

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

The new Romulus Boys/Girls Club at Merriman Elementary School has a widened activity schedule this summer, since regular classes have ended.

Executive Director Frank Rigger said unlike during the school year, activities begin Tuesday through Saturday at 10 a.m. instead of mid-afternoon.

Rigger said the summer staff also includes two full time employees, three part-time college workers and two high school age employees.

Those regular day programs are conducted from 10 a.m. to 16 p.m. The membership fee for Romulus area youth is $25. The membership count has jumped from 50 to 300 since January, Rigger states.

In addition an "Early Bird" program from 8 to 10 a.m. is offered at a cost of $10 a week, with rates cut in half if a second or third family members joins.

Included in the club's financial package is $339,000 over three years (a portion of a major grant obtained by School Curriculum Director Thomas Dolan).

In addition it was announced that a fund-raising effort seeking $3.5 million will begin soon in preparation for a future building for the club.

That fund raising effort will be conducted by 34th District Court Judge Brian Oakley and others.

For more information call Rigger at 941-6900.

Birth note

Bradley Michael Nowak, son of Anmarie (Begin) and Russell Nowak of Gregory, MI., was born March 20, 1999 at Providence Hospital in Southfield.

He weighed eight pounds and measured 21 and 1/2 inches at birth.

He joins a sister, Lauren, at home.

He also is the grandson of Leota Begin of Canton and Norma Nowak of Indiana.

He was baptised at St. Mary's Catholic Church of Chelsea on June 13. His Godparents are Michelle Borg of Wayne and Charles Nowak of Westland.

Watson leaving Westland church

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

The Rev. Craig Watson -- pastor of the Westland Christian Church for the last eight years -- stepped down from the church's pulpit for the last time on Sunday.

No full time replacement has been named at this time, Watson said.

Watson, who has been pastoring in Ohio and Michigan since 1984, will soon begin working on his doctoral degree in music education this fall at Michigan State University.

He will however continue his role as music teacher in the Wayne-Westland School District, Watson said, working mainly in the Lincoln and Patchin Elementary Schools.

The Watson family moved recently to Inkster, so that his three daughters would remain in the Wayne-Westland School District.

After he earns his doctoral degree, Watson said he hopes to move on to handing musical education programs at a Christian college or university.

When that occurs, Watson said, he will also be able to use his pastoral skills.

Watson is proud of both the success he has had as a music teacher and local pastor.

"Many persons have come to know the Lord during our years here," Watson said, "and others have had their Christian lives enriched."

There has been a steady increase in membership here in recent years and the congregation has moved from financially troubled to solvent during this time, Watson said.

The veteran pastor said he is proud of the positive nature his congregation exhibited during the last few months and said he will now become available for pulpit fill-ins and revivals.

Sleeping woman's car stolen

By IVAN HELFMAN
MCN Staff Writer

Someone stole a sleeping woman's car.

At 6:30 a.m., June 22, someone broke into her home on 7600 block of Drew, stole one set of car keys out of her purse, a second set of car keys from a pair of another resident's pants, and $25 cash.

Then the thief drove off with her red 1992 Ford Escort.

At 8 a.m., she noticed that her was missing and called police.

Police noted that one of the home's window screens had been cut and removed. Marks on the window frame indicated that a window had been pried open, probably with the steak knife that police found next to the opened window.

Though there are no suspects, the case remains under investigation while the crime lab examines the knife for fingerprints.

Upside down plane ride is a thrill--seekers treat

Wilcox with Hill and Hoyos after the hair-raising thrill ride.

Last week I wrote about my experience in a chase plane. This plane watched while Sean Tucker, last year's CASPA challenge winner, practiced his routine. Lo and behold, this week I was called back to actually ride in the stunt plane of Rocky Hill, who aptly titles his performance "tumble time."

Let me tell you out of the gate, this is not an experience for the weak of heart. Flying upside down at 200 miles per hour is a greater thrill than any roller coaster or simulator. And doing it over and over with flips and tumbles interspersed makes it a challenge for even the most physically fit.

And mind you, this middle-aged writer does not fit that category. I was already in a state of shock before take off. My hands shook as I signed the release form that absolved Hill and the Air Show of any responsibility in case of injury. My body temperature shot up several degrees as Hill's assistant, Bryan Hoyos strapped me in to the two-seater plane with four seat belts and a parachute.

I still remember his words, vividly, "If anything goes wrong, pull this cord straight down." He then handed me a barf bag, and took all my possessions—wallet, press badge, sunglasses, and gum.

It finally sunk in that I was going up in the air with Hill, not only one of the world's greatest aerobats, but the holder of the World Speed Record. This man, in his Extra 300 mono wing, sponsored by America Online, was ready to put me through a series of maneuvers that I would remember forever.

As if the parachute and four seatbelts wasn't enough, Hill informed me as we were cruising down the runway that he zigzagged back and forth because he cannot see out the front of his plane. That sent a chill down my spine. I was entrusting my life to a pilot who couldn't see directly out the front of his plane. Although my ride went without incident, a day later in competition, Hill was knocked out of the Air Show, because another competitor, Gene Soucy, ran in to Hill and his plane as they were zigzagging down the runway.

It was a different story in the air. Hill could see very well, and as we climbed I could help think how smooth this small plane cruised. Quite suddenly, however, the plane was upside down. And there I was looking upside down at Belleville, strapped to my sparsely padded seat by a series of seatbelts. I was terrified, yet amazed.

Just as quickly we were again right side up. But only for a minute. Upside down again, only this time it seemed like we stayed wrong side for several minutes. My back was beginning to ache because the G-forces were creating enormous pressure. I alternately closed and opened my eyes, fully expecting to fall out of the plane at any moment.

Finally, Hill turned the plane right side up. But now he was climbing, and without warning was doing 360 degree back flips. We were tumbling and flipping at the same time. Now the G-forces were really kicking in. My eyes remained shut. My headphones, once laid perfectly on the top of my head, clung loosely along my earlobes. I was praying that my seatbelts would hold.

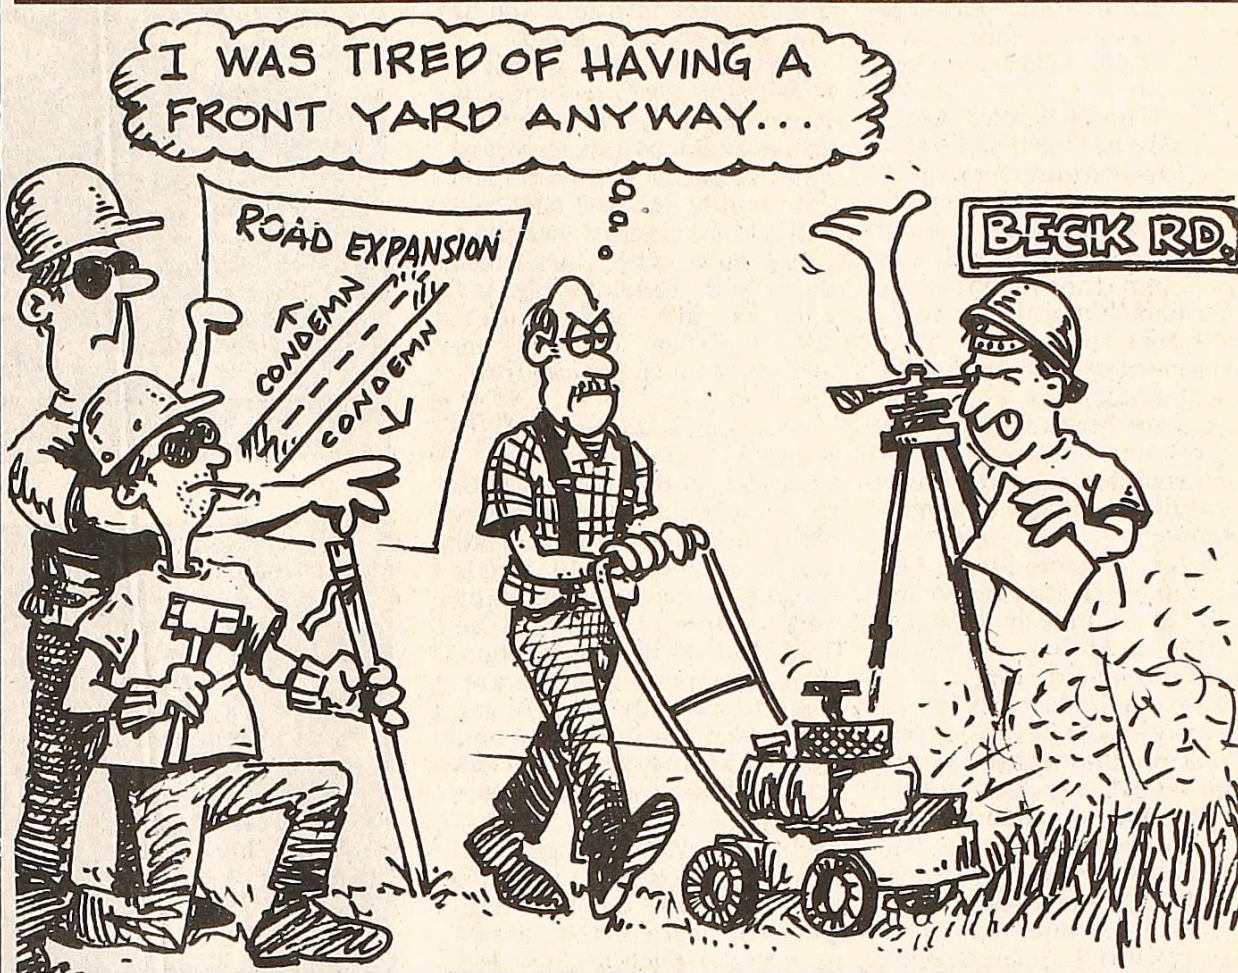

After what seemed like an eternity, but was really only 20 minutes, the routine was over: The Extra 300 with Rocky and I, safely followed our chase plane with photographers Karen Beroff and Carol Marshall to the ground.

I now understand why most of the television, radio and newspaper reporters chose to ride in chase planes. And more importantly I have a new respect for seatbelts. In the air my life was dependent on Rocky and those seatbelts, and thank God, neither one let me down.

Mike's musings

Mike Wilcox

Mike Maloney was right! He hustled legislators

Gosh darn! New Plymouth-Canton Board of Education member Mark Slavens was wrong.

Ousted Board President Mike Maloney was right.

During the campaign, Slavens accused Maloney of failing to hustle state legislators for more money.

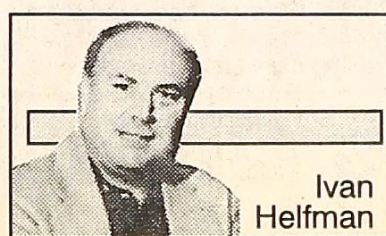

Wrong, said Maloney, who claimed that under his leadership the board had been going to legislatures with outstretched arms and open palms.

Voters apparently believed Slavens, who trounced Maloney in the June elections on this very issue, according to Slavens.

But a few days ago, legislators came through for the Maloney team. The legislature, pushed on by local Republicans, like Rep. Bruce Patterson and Sen. Lauren Bennett, who met with Maloney, revised the state's school aid formula to provide more moolah to growing districts like Plymouth-Canton.

The change was one of Slavens's top goals.

Under the new formula, state funding is based on combined February and September pupil counts. The old formula counted the current school year September at 60 percent and the past year's February at 40 percent. When a student moved, the old district would still get 40 percent of his or her state aid. No more.

Under the new formula, the split will go 75 percent of the September count and 25 percent of the February in 1999-2000. Next semester, the split jumps to 80 percent September, 20 percent February.

The shrinking districts, like Wayne-Westland, will only retain 20 percent of the disappearing students' funding, while growing districts will net 80 percent.

This should please Slavens and should prompt him to thank Maloney.

But Slavens should also beware of new Interim Superintendent Ken Walcott, who if he is a man of integrity, must refuse the extra money.

You see, Walcott has fought charter schools because, he said, they stifle "diversity." Walcott, like the Plymouth-Canton board, puts a high premium on diversity — though who knows what the term means to educators, who oppose offering students vouchers for a diverse choice of schools.

The best I could figure from Walcott's statements, diversity means flying other countries' flags in the school buildings, sort of like one of those international food courts that fly the Mexican flag over Taco Bell and the Italian flag over Pizza Hut.

In his willingness to fight for diversity, Walcott said that he helped persuade the Norton Shores planning commission not to allow a charter school to start up in his old district, Mona Shores Public Schools, because charter schools lack diversity.

But so does Plymouth-Canton. While I don't have exact figures, Plymouth-Canton is one of the most uniform (segregated?) districts receiving state aid in Wayne County.

Under the new formula, Plymouth-Canton will be taking money away from more diverse districts, like Wayne-Westland, weakening them further.

Money that is now supporting diversity will be taken away to support uniformity (segregation?).

If Plymouth-Canton is to be consistent, they have two choices. They can hand over their extra money to a more diverse district like Wayne-Westland or they can quit babbling about diversity and attacking charter schools and re-focus the district on teaching the three R's.

Thanks a Million

WEEKLY SYNDICATED COLUMN by PERCY ROSS

Millionaire Percy Ross is known for his philanthropic work. He offers help and encouragement for those in need. He has earned a fortune and a wealth of knowledge during his lifetime and wants to share both. His motto: "He who gives while he lives... also knows where it goes."

Moving A Mountain, One Dollar At A Time

Dear Mr. Ross: Several months back I posed a question to you and you had the answer. I was fund raising for the Marquette County YMCA and wanted to know if you could help. In addition to your donation of $1,000, you also asked your readers to send $1 each.

I come to you again with question in hand. How do I and the YMCA staff ever begin to thank you and your readers? Over 10,000 letters came to us with well over $1 in each, totalling $51,197.17.

The national exposure you gave us was a real boost. How do we begin to thank you for creating the awareness of our need? Knowing you, you'd tell us that your thanks would come about by our using every dollar to complete the facility, whereby giving our community's children a safe place to learn and play.

Although we're $200,000 short of our goal, your efforts have made a tremendous difference. We made some changes to the pool design to reduce the cost, and are cutting any corners that won't take away from the structural integrity of the plan.

We have made the commitment to finish the building and continue the fund raising campaign as we go. Our greatest hope is that as businesses and residents see this wonderful structure going up, it will become more of a reality to them and they will open their hearts and wallets to help us finish this project.

It's a huge goal, Mr. Ross, but we knew that when we began. But with your help, and the help from your truly wonderful readers, we are that much further along. Please accept my most heartfelt thank you, with a personal invitation to cut the ribbon with us at our grand opening.

Most importantly, be sure to share my thanks on behalf of the entire Marquette County YMCA staff, directors and members, to your readers for their incredible generosity. Even now I have tears in my eyes remembering opening each letter and reading the beautiful words of encouragement. I just wished I could thank each one now for personally helping us along.

Mary Tavernini ... Mining Journal, Marquette, MI

Dear Readers: I've heard from so many of you who donated money to this tremendously deserving cause, asking what the outcome was. So there you have it—this project is still $200,000 short of its goal. And because I believe so strongly in what a YMCA can mean within a community for children and adults, I come to you once again.

If we all ban together, we can see this project through. It's not that I'm interested in attending a ribbon cutting ceremony. My interests lie in leaving a legacy for children through the support of this column.

It must be common knowledge by now that that support has always been in the strength of my readers. If we could see this project through to completion, it would teach children a precious lesson in life. A lesson which says that through the efforts of many hands a job can be completed. And why? Well in this particular case it was because it was something everyone was capable of—sending $1.

From the Sharing is Caring Foundation I'm making a second $1,000 contribution. Will you please join me once again and make a $1 donation to: The YMCA of Marquette County, P.O. Box 441, Marquette, MI 49855. Your dollar will make a difference—your dollar will count.

This is too important of a cause to turn our backs now. You can't always measure the success of a child in terms of dollars. What the YMCA cultivates in youth, like morality, ethics, team spirit and a broad sense of fair-mindedness, is what really counts. Let's get the job done.

Thanks to all who helped make the Strawberry Festival great

To the editor:

The 1999 23rd Annual Belleville National Strawberry Festival is history.

A lot of success was reflected in this Festival. A lot of hard work was evident by having our guests enjoy so many new things.

The executive committee worked extremely hard to bring these items to you. One person behind the scene who deserves a mountain of thank you's is Reggie Miller. As executive officers, she was instrumental in the success of this festival. She personally completed all the vendor requirements from the initial contact to assigning their respective locations on the street to give you a variety. She was instrumental in bringing the VIP recognition party held at Woodland's Golf she was instrumental in bringing organization to the festival. She was the one who handled most of the phone calls, handled all the correspondence, responded to all the fax inquiries, completed all the vendor applications, assigned vendors and crafters locations on Main St. and was outstanding to see the Strawberry Festival was a success. There is no way to account for the number of hours she took from her family to support the festival. Her list of items she contributed goes on for sure, I just wrote down some of the ones I am aware of. On behalf of the City of Belleville, The National Strawberry Board of Directors and any one Reggie has worked with I wish to say "Thank you"

Reggie was very effective in developing, writing and producing much of the promotional material. She contacted many of the sponsors and was responsible in bringing Meijer to the festival as a primary sponsor. Everyday Reggie contributed something to the festival.

We set an all time record for vendors. As you were able to see if you attended the festival, Main St. was full, full of vendors, crafters, games, rides and thing to do. We had 247 eligible locations and yes they were all occupied. Most people expressed their satisfaction to see more activity on Main Street.

We set an all time record for attendance. Wasn't it great to look up (or down) Main Street and see a people jam. I like to use the expression - wall to wall people!

And how about that weather - "Wow" - No sticking tar to your shoes. I'm sure the local churches who participated in the festival passed on the word to our believers. We can say thank's to Him.

You were able to see many new things for to festival this year some highlights - the wee wee princess, the junior princess contest conducted by Kevin Fuller of "Green Meadows Apartments" Thanks Kevin for a great job, The Lipton Tea Sampling Display with the Lipton Tea Hot Air Balloon, what a spectacular sight. The Swiss Army Display, The Computer Display by Wayne County Community College. Thanks to Dennis O'Connell and staff and, oh yes, the Children's Circus. What a great attraction for the kids, how about the yo yo man, Mark Rosenthal and his magic/animal show, Ronald McDonald and all the performers at the children's stage, I'm sure I'm forgetting some highlights.

Last but not least I would like to thank the Board of Directors for all the hard work and dedication. The Board of Directors made it easy for me to be the president.

How about the entertainment on the main stage, never stopped, highlighting so many great performances, concluding with the Motown Great "The Contours" Special thanks to Debbie Jacobson Entertainment Chairperson, great job!

My personal thanks goes to special people, people like Reggie Miller, Jay Faler, Janet Millard, and to the fathers, grandfathers, who worked so hard and to a person I respect, Lou Hamlin. Lou worked with us as the morn sheet supervisor. Lou spent untiring hours at the festival from Thursday till Sunday. He worked directly with Reggie and the vendors handling many situations and making life easy. He worked with the vendors electricians, clean up people, transportation people and everything else no one knew who to call. It was always "Lou." Lou was a great contribute to the success of this festival on behalf of this board of directors I say "Thanks to Lou."

Let's not forget the queen pageant - conducted year after by Diane Ferguson and Nancy Shepard. What a great group and a sincere thank you always a great job.

How about that parade. Well over one hundred units and a continuous flow of fun. Thanks to Tony Gibson and his staff for this great activity!

I'm sure I forgot to say thanks to someone but I know they know, we say thanks for a job well done.

Let's not forget the City of Belleville, City Council Keith Boc, The Belleville Police Dept. and the newspapers media who helped support us! Thanks!

Looking forward to next year for a bigger, better more extravagant festival building on our theme "A weekend of fun for everyone."

Thank you!
Ralph A. Nodwell
President

Special Thanks to Jim Miller - Who worked hours to help as a volunteer - thanks for giving Reggie to us. You both have done a great job.

Parents need to act like adults

To the editor:

I went home from Romulus High School graduation on Saturday at the field house and cried. I felt so bad for the graduation class of 1999.

These kids have worked for years for this very special day in their lives, and there were the parents herding in like animals late (long after the ceremony started) when we were also told several times, letters sent home and also on the tickets to be there no later than 10:45. Making so much noise that we parents that were there on time to hear the program could not hear a thing.

I would like to take this opportunity to apologize to the administration and the staff of the Romulus High School for the behavior of some of the parents.

The administration had worked very hard to have a very nice program and the parents spoiled it for the kids.

They were screaming and yelling the whole time not just when there child's name was called.

Then there was that guy with the air horn (you know who you are) that was so loud we couldn't hear anything. Then the parents were asked to stay seated until the student's ceremony was over and they were all out.

They didn't even have the courtesy to do that. Yes it was hot, but the students (which remember it was their day), were just as hot.

How as parents can we expect our kids to respect the peers and administration when we as parents don't? I would like again to apologize for some of the parents of class of 1999 for acting rude obnoxious and more like animals than adults.

Patterson continues trend of cutting taxes

To the Editor:

I recently voted to eliminate the state's Single Business Tax, opening the door for more jobs and economic growth for all Michigan residents.

I have acted to cut the personal income tax rate for all Michigan residents.

House Bill 4745 phases out the Single Business Tax, which costs job providers $2.7 billion annually. Michigan is the only state to impose such a tax.

Michigan lawmakers are eliminating barriers to job creation, and lifting a tax has become a great burden for small-business owners. This tax cut is one of a series I've called for throughout my term as a lawmaker, not to mention the tax cuts I helped pass as a former Wayne County commissioner.

The measure reduces the Single Business Tax rate by 0.1 percent each year until it's completely phased out. The reduction would begin retroactively on Jan. 1 of this year.

A member of the House Tax Policy Committee and American Legislative Exchange Council's National Task Force on Tax and Fiscal Policy, also this year I introduced House Joint Resolution B. The resolution prohibits lawmakers from imposing new or raising existing taxes without a supermajority vote of the House of Senate.

For years I've been known throughout Wayne County as a tax cutter, and it's one reason Wayne County residents elected me to the state House. Governor Engler supports a supermajority requirement to raise or impose taxes, and I'm also proud to lead that initiative.

Eliminating the Single Business Tax provides a strong incentive for companies to invest in Michigan, translating into more jobs and continues economic growth for residents and families.

HB 4745 now goes to the Senate for consideration and passage.

Sincerely,
Rep. Bruce Patterson

Tyler students suggest replacing fast-food styrofoam containers

To the editor:

Today at school, we were reading Time for Kids. It was about saving the earth.

As you probably know, styrofoam does not dissolve in landfills. My class came up with an idea to help solve the styrofoam problem.

Instead of getting styrofoam take-out trays, take recyclable containers to a restaurant to put your food in.

I think this would be a great, but simple way to help save the earth.

Sincerely,
Michelle Ackron

Charter schools thrive as parents play options

By MAUDE REID
MCN Special Writer

Two local and area charter schools are operating successfully in the area and the city of Inkster.

The two are Thomas-Gist Academy North, at 28955 Roselawn, Inkster, and Thomas-Gist South, a 4825 Dancy Boulevard, in Westland.

The Westland school opened its doors in August of 1995 with 150 students and is known as the South Campus.

In February, 1996, a second facility was established at 28955 Rosewood and the two have a combined enrollment of 374, according to school officials.

The goals of each school are to prepare all students academically, physically, emotionally and socially to become productive adults. The belief is that all children can learn, including the educationally disadvantaged students, if provided the learning environment.

The academic goals are functional literacy, adult role preparation, self-adjustment and character development, along with academic excellence, according to school officials.

The core curriculum includes such subjects as computer science, lab, foreign languages, including Spanish and French, art, health education, English, science, math, language arts and other subjects as recommended by the Michigan Board of Education.

Among the extra-curricula activities are art, karate, golf, gospel choir, participating in Girl Scouts, Boy Scout, basketball, journalism, and Bible study.

There are 19 teachers and the South Campus has grades fourth through eighth.

Davis Hearn serves as director, while Quentin Mingo is the principal. Easter James serves as Dean of Students, and teacher-mentor of both campuses.

There's also a parent mentor. He's Randall Cozart.

There are 10 teacher assistants, special education teachers and paraprofessionals.

Each school also has a computer lab and a hot lunch program.

There is a parent group named Parent Communications Network and Pamela Moon is president; Robert Butler, vice president; Addie Faulk, secretary; Gary Jones, Jr., treasurer and Mario Delfino DeGutierrez, trustee.

Both schools organize field trips and participate in the D.A.R.E. Program (Drug Abuse Resistance Education), which is sponsored by the Inkster Police Department, the Michigan State Police and the Wayne County Intermediate School District (RESA).

Future plans are for competitive sports, installing an Internet, and a parent-mentoring club.

For more information, call the school at 734-728-4813.

King Academy receiving state funding

By MAUDE REID
MCN Special Writer

King Academy has been awarded a $200,000 grant to help fund technology and computer programs at the local charter school.

The State Board of Education approved the funding which is, in part, from the Technology Literacy Challenge Fund-Cycle 3 grant.

Elmira Frye Mosley, executive director of the Academy, said she was elated over the good news.

The federally-funded program provides assistance to Michigan school districts and public school academies to help promote the acquisition and effective use of technology and telecommunications in education and to better prepare students for the challenge of the 21st Century.

King Academy was one of 68 schools out of 289 local and regional applicants that were approved from the Cycle 3 competition.

The grant will support professional development of Staff Technology training Summer 1999, and the curriculum integration and use both by Eastern Michigan University support to teachers through

King Academy was one of 68 schools out of 289 local and regional applicants that were approved from the Cycle 3 competition.

May, 2000.

The hardware will arrive in each classroom beginning in August of this year. There will be one teacher work station, one computer-linked overhead projector, one mounted TV monitor, one electronic pen tablet, one laser printer and PBX Telephone system with homework hotline.

There will also be a web server for Internet connection and a local area network to classrooms, the Media Center and Administrative offices, computer curriculum corporation software on three stations in each classroom and E-Mail assignment to each employee.

The entire King Academy technology initiative will total more than $300,000, including funds from other sources such as at-risk, $85,000 and Title I-$26,000.

King Academy is a K-6 Charter School in its second year of operation and is currently accepting applications for Fall of 1999 during open enrollment from June 21 to July 2.

Applications are also being accepted for summer math, reading and technology program.

This program, funded by a $40,000 charter school grant, will run half-days for five weeks from June 29 through July 29, 1999.

Medicare/Medicaid Notice to the Public

Notice is hereby given that on July 16, 1999, the agreement between the Secretary of Health and Human Services and Belle Woods Continuing Care Center, in Belleville, Michigan, as a skilled nursing facility in the Medicare program will be terminated. In addition, as authorized by the Michigan Department of Community Health, notice is given that the facility's agreement as a nursing facility in the Medicaid program will be terminated effective July 16, 1999.

The Health Care Financing Administration has determined that Belle Woods Continuing Care Center has failed to attain substantial compliance with the following Medicare/Medicaid participation requirements at Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations:

483.13 (Restraints), 483.15 (Quality of Life), 483.20 (Resident Assessment),
483.25 (Quality of Care), 483.45 (Rehab Services), and 483.70 (Life Safety Code)

The Medicare Program will not make payment for skilled nursing facility services furnished to residents admitted to the facility on or after February 22, 1999. This date is due to a previously imposed denial of payment for new admissions. For Medicare residents admitted prior to February 22, 1999, payment may continue to be made for up to 30 days of covered services furnished on or after July 16, 1999.

In addition, Federal Financial Participation will not be available to the State of Michigan for any Medicaid residents admitted to the facility on or after February 22, 1999. For Medicaid residents admitted prior to February 22, 1999, Federal Financial Participation may continue to be made to the State of Michigan for up to 30 days of covered services to qualified residents furnished on or after July 16, 1999.

Volunteers make it happen

In the heart of the suburban metropolitan area survives a little slice of old-fashioned fun—the Westland Summer Festival during the 4th of July week. The festival, which has been for more than a quarter-century, organized and run by 14-member volunteer committee remains a tribute to the city and example of what great lengths people will do just for the love of it.

"We are residents who got involved with the festival because we have gotten involved with everything ever since our kids were small," says Sue Haslacker, the festival committee's secretary. She said most of the committee is like her and her husband, Charlie, the festival chairperson, who also got involved for the fun of it.

But it's certainly not all fun and games; it's hard work taking on the festival year after year. Because the committee is an all-volunteer force, with jobs and families and lives outside the festival, Haslacker said the group certainly faces challenges.

"Everybody used to just assume that the city put the festival on, but they don't," she said. And working with the city and all its different departments requires a good deal of juggling and legwork. "In fact, we have to pay for the extra police coverage during the parade." She adds, though, that the city is not completely "hands off" in the festival, and the mayor is sponsoring the dance on Saturday night.

The festival...remains a tribute to the city and example of what great lengths people will do just for the love of it.

The festivities kick off with the Westland Summer Festival Queen Pageant the weekend before the festival. The dress styles change, but some things never do. The young women pull out all the stops for glamour, with only thinly disguised nervousness to vie for the crown.

Then, Wednesday night, the official beginning of the festival, the parade, struts through town with old-fashioned toe-tapping, lights-and-sirens fun for the whole family. The parade begins at 7 p.m. at Schoolcraft College at Wildwood and Ford and heads west to City Hall.

The festival's carnival starts at 5 p.m. and runs through Sunday night, with games, amusements, and stomach-flipping activities sure to make you say, "Wheeeee!"

The activities resume Thursday afternoon at 3 p.m. and the Bingo and Vegas tents open at 6 p.m. Festival goers will dance the night away to the music of the RPM Band from 7 to 11 p.m.

Friday, the festal opens again in the afternoon, along with Bingo and Vegas activities. Visitors will also love the Jacob Raming Polka Band in the early evening, followed by the "Bubby Lewis" Band.

Saturday, get to the festival early for Quality Movers Car Show registration, which begins at 8 a.m. The show opens the festival at 10 a.m., the same time the Westland Civitans open their Children's Picnic and Tot Town with games and activities for young families.

The Kidstent opens at 11 a.m., and will feature Magic Shows and a Game Show, with start times throughout the entire day.

At 1 p.m., join in the side-splitting fun as the Pie Eating Contest takes the stage. The Legs Contest will follow that at 2 p.m., with contestants aged 16-years-old and older. "That's kind of fun," Haslacker says, "because you have everyone from the Westland Festival Queen to firemen and police officers join in."

Old-fashioned Horse Shoe Pitch and Golf Chipping contests will be the focus on Saturday afternoon, and the stylings of the Josh Gracin Strolling Barber-shop Singers will fill the air.

The Senior Dance at the Bailey Center from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. will feature the Phil Graham Band, and after that, it still won't be too late to enjoy the "Art of Fact" Band from 7 to 11 p.m.

Sunday closes the festival in style, with a Celebrating God service starting at 9 a.m. and followed by a continental breakfast at 10.

Check out the pretty babies in the Baby Toddler Contest finals from 10:30 a.m. to noon Sunday, and once again enjoy all the children's activities in the Kidstent.

Bingo, Vegas, and the Horseshoe and Golf Chipping contests wrap up Sunday, and are followed by the Lonestar Country Line Dancers from 6 to 9 p.m. and the Young Country Band from 7 to 11 p.m.

The fireworks are sure to end the festival with a bang, and they start at dark. Bring your lawn chairs and blankets and enjoy the show.

Nine vie for Miss Westland crown

As much a tradition as the festival itself, the Miss Westland Summer Festival Pageant was a night to remember.

Pageant coordinator Michaeline Ward says the pageant is an integral part of the festival. "We need someone really upbeat to represent our city at the festival," she said. "The winner stays busy all weekend, talking to people at the festival and making sure they're having fun." But all the contestants join in, she says. "They all go to the festival and help out. The join in the Legs Contest and the Dunk Tank. They do a lot of work."

This year, the pageant winner is Kimberly Corney, first runner-up is Krista Kordie, and second runner-up is Dawn Perttula.

The contestants, Ward explains, are judged on poise and attitude, to ensure the winner will be the friendliest and most confident of the girls.

Being cool and confident, Ward says, is not always the easiest thing to do on pageant night. "They get nervous," she says. "We've had a couple so stunned they couldn't even speak."

But she tries to keep them calm. "There's really no need to be nervous," Ward says. "It's mostly family and friends that come to the pageant. And the judges are so nice and so friendly, they make the girls feel more at ease."

The distinguished panel of judges included Lori Brist, Chamber of Commerce; Barb Polich, Civitan Governor

"The winner stays busy all weekend, talking to people at the festival and making sure they're having fun."

Elect; Mark Neal, City of Westland Fire Chief; Mike Reddy Jr., City of Westland firefighter; Don Begarowicz, Westland Festival Committee Communications Director; and Kellie Heppner, Westland Mall Marketing Manager.

The pageant offers the contestants more fun than high-stakes winnings, but all the girls do walk away with gift bags. The top three vote getters also receive cell phones from Page Plus, a tanning package from Carribean Tan, and memberships at the new health club, Complete Health and Fitness. The winner receives her crown from The Loop, flowers from Nature Nook, and all trophies are compliments of the Westland Mall. President Tuxedo, Act-Cent, U.S. Print, Sign-A-Rama, Susie's Dance Pointe, Jafra Cosmetics International, Sam Corrado & WLND Cable and Dillons Jewelers also helped to sponsor the event.

The pageant judges listen carefully as each contestant delivers her answer to a question about herself.

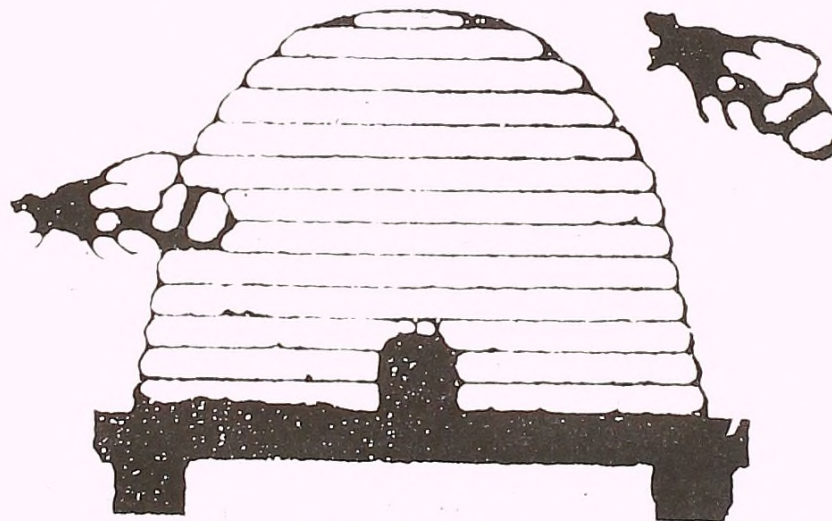

Pageant contestants Darcy Bemis, Jeannie Castillo, LeShawnta Chambers, Kimberly Corney, Kathleen Gates, Krysten Giachino, Krista Kordie, Dawn Perttula, Kelly Sexton, Samantha Snabes and Valerie White, moments before the winner was announced.

Festival takes year-round planning

For most folks, the Westland Summer Festival is a five-day stretch of fun. But for the 14-member committee that organizes the annual event, it's year-round work and dedication, topped off with satisfaction.

Ken Mehl, the committee's executive director, says the first meeting after the festival concludes is a wrap-up, but right after that, in September, the committee gets back to work and starts planning for the next year.

The committee firms up festival dates in the fall to ensure getting the green light for permits and street closures from city hall. They begin to look for entertainment then, too, a process which lasts through the spring.

Mehl says one major goal for upcoming years is to involve more local non-profit organizations in the festival. Concessions coordinator Dennis LaMaitre said the committee has taken great strides to help non-profit groups get involved in the food vending by offering as much equipment—including heating and refrigeration and utensils—as possible. This is particularly appreciated by non-profit groups who typically have a difficult time enlisting volunteers during a holiday weekend.

"We've tried to make the operation as turn-key as possible for the food vendors," he said.

Mehl said as the schedule firms up, the committee starts to finish up their publicity materials to put the word out about the weekend's events.

Mehl has been involved with the committee for about 22 years, and for many of the years has worked as the chair or director, and has seen the festival change over the past two decades.

"It's gotten bigger, for sure," he says. "The attendance has definitely increased. We really have reason to believe there's going to be quarter million people pass through here in four days."

He says the Sunday night fireworks is the biggest crowd draw, but he cannot reasonably estimate how many people attend from year to year. "I can tell you this," he says. "There's not an empty space around."

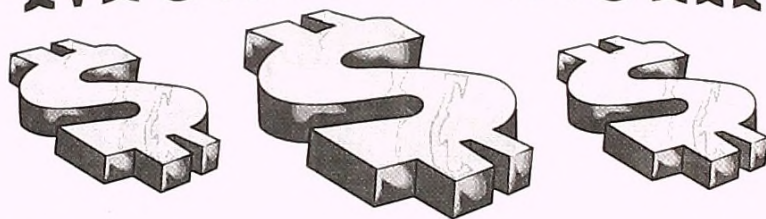

A week before the festival, Mehl said he and the other committee members were starting to feel the effects of the year of planning. "But it all works out. When all the frustration and stress and tempers settle down, it's very satisfying," he explains.

This satisfaction is what draws most of the volunteers, he said. "When you see people come out to the festival with their kids and they're having fun, it's all worth it," he adds. And for that long weekend in July, festival goers as well as committee members get the chance to experience something different, do something fun, and be a kid again.

The activities for kids make the festival a true family event.

Just for kids

The Westland Summer Festival promises something for everyone, especially the kids. To start off the events, Wednesday evening's parade, always a winner with the children will begin at 7 p.m.

Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon, the Westland Civitans are sponsoring a Children's Picnic and Tot Town, with games activities for kids. The children will surely have a ball in the Old Country Fair activities and atmosphere, as well as learn about safety in the Fire House, which teaches them how to escape a fire safely and calmly.

From 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday, make sure to visit the Kidstent, where you'll find the quiz show and special Dyna-Mike magic shows, balloon animal creations and face painting.

And what kid-of any age-can resist digging into as much pie as he or she can handle in the pie eating contest? Look for that event Saturday at 1 p.m. on the stage.

Sunday, the Kidstent will be open from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. with another day of fun for children and parents alike. And if the pie didn't do you in on Saturday, you can always dig in to the Ice Cream Eating Contest Sunday at noon.

Every mother's child is certainly beautiful, but look for especially beautiful babies in the Baby and Toddler Contest on Sunday, and cast your votes for the finalists.

Be sure to get your "oohs" and "aahs" at the fireworks on Sunday night. They'll start a little after 10 p.m., but it just might be worth bending the rules on your usual bedtimes to attend.

The Westland Summer Festival offers something for everyone.

"Come on down"

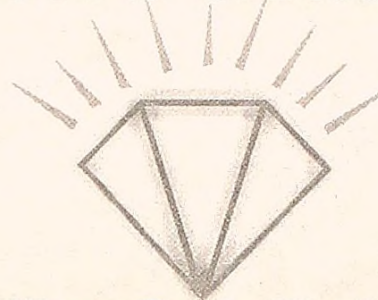

"Come on Down" and bring the family to the Westland Festival, and be totally surprised and excited to see something you've never seen before, except on television. It's the Fun & Game Show featuring all of your favorite televisions game shows like: The Price is Right, Jeopardy, Let's Make A Deal and Name That Tune....all rolled into one show! Win cash and prizes just like on TV!

There will be five big shows both Saturday, July 3, and Sunday, July 4, starting at 1:15 p.m. and it's all free. The show also features TV actor and performer, George Young and the lovely and talented stage assistant, Carol Kaye.

Also, you won't want to miss the Magic Illusions of Dyna Mike the Magician. He will be performing two magic shows each day and doing face painting and balloon animals.

Remember, there are only two places in the United States to be on a game show. One is Hollywood and the other is the Westland Festival.

Car show bigger, better than ever

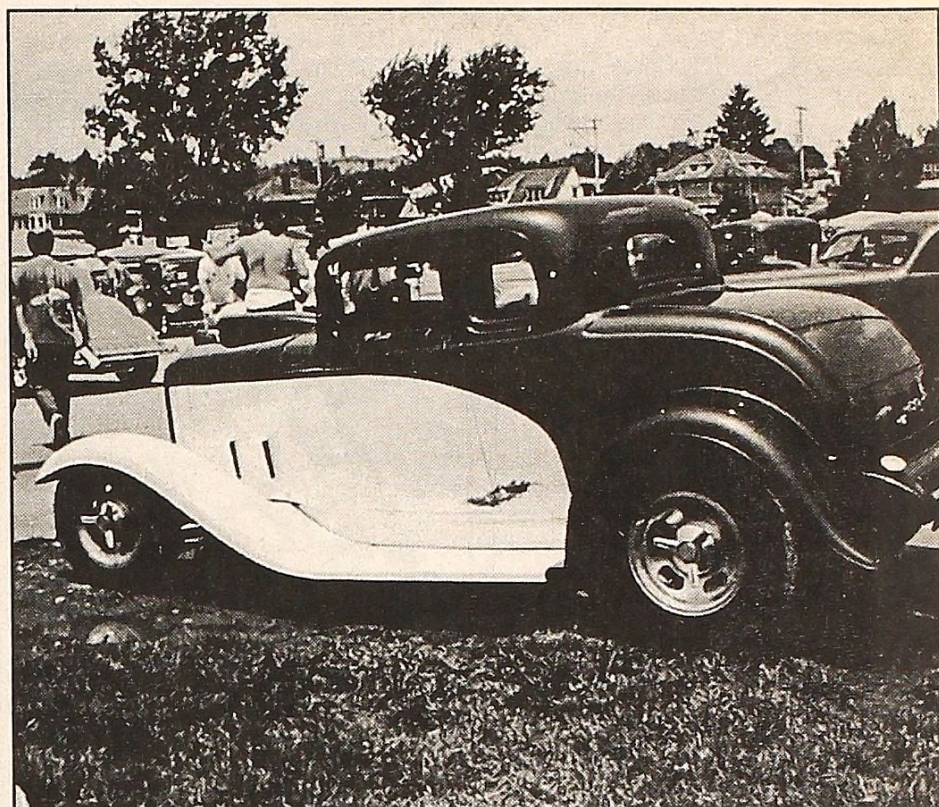

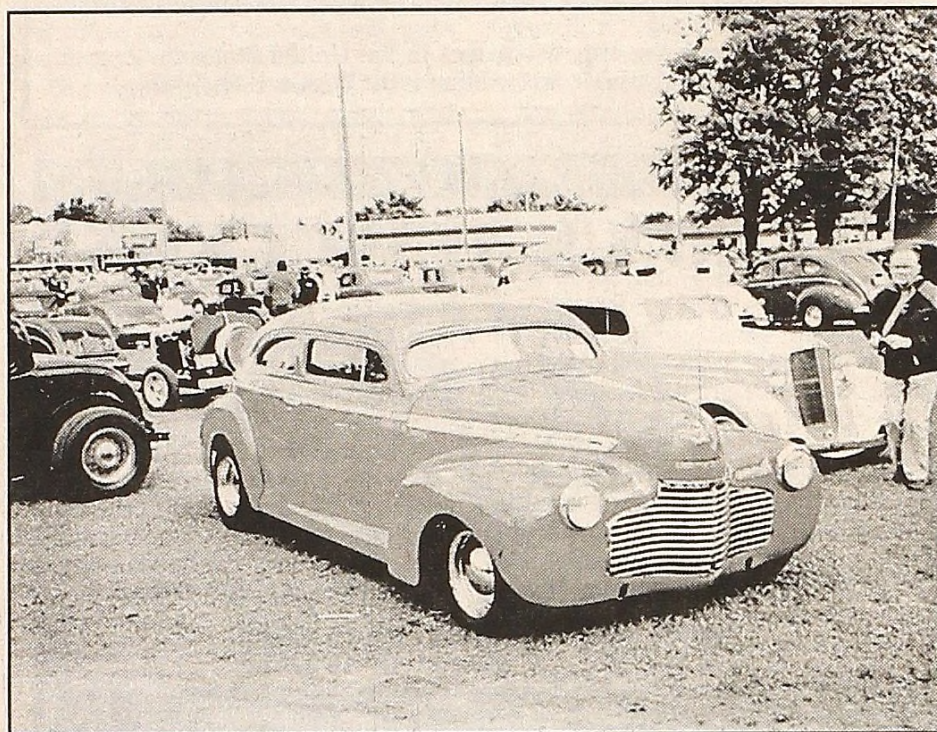

More than 250 classic cars, custom cars and street rods will roll into town this weekend for the Quality Movers/U.S.M.A. Car Fest.

The car show is one of the highlights of the Westland Summer Festival, and has been for the four years since its inception.

Show coordinator Gary Bulson says this is the first year the United Street

Machine Association has participated, and it's some welcome relief for him. "It started out that just me and my brother in law were doing the show. It was fun. But then it just got too big," growing from 43 cars four years ago to 169 last year, he explains, so he asked the association to get involved.

This move will surely bring in a larger number and variety of cars on display, he said, which will be great for the show as well as the guests who come to check out the cars.

"There will be all different kinds of cars....street rods, original models, customized cars; we'll even see some newer customized and performance cars. We don't discriminate," Bulson says.

More than 200 trophies will be awarded, and there will be swap meet during the show, offering a variety of parts and paraphernalia.

Hungry? Be sure to stop by the Children's Hospital of Detroit S.T.A.R.S. group concession stand. It's good food, for a good cause.

A good time and some great eats

Food, food, food! There's nothing like eating your way through a festival. And the Westland Summer Festival will offer food to satisfy any fancy. Unless, of course, you're eating light.

Look for Wheels Barbecue serving up ribs, and turkey legs. "A la the Renaissance Festival," says concessions coordinator Dennis LaMaitre.

The Westland Jaycees will serve up Toarmina's offerings. Look for an exciting addition to the festival's culinary offerings: Michigan Smoothies will have two booths. One, located in the beer tent, will serve frozen alcoholic and non-alcoholic delights. And another, out in the festival grounds, will serve non-alcoholic frozen fruity fare along with deep-fried appetizers including cheese sticks, broccoli bites, wing dings and chicken strips.

For good eats and a good cause, visit St. Damian's Church's booth for some hot pretzels, hot dogs and bratwurst.

And, of course, you'll find standard festival goodies at booths throughout the grounds, where you can find and ice cold lemonade, cotton candy, elephant ears, corn dogs and the like.

If these are enough to make you feel a little thirsty, make a special trip to the beer tent, sponsored by the festival committee, and take the edge off your thirst. Enjoy!

The horseshoes competition will be just one highlight of this year's festival.

6 softball teams set to battle for Romulus Holiday Tournament title

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Although they would have liked at least two more teams on the diamonds, Romulus recreation officials said that six teams are in the gate and are ready to make a run for the 9th annual Stars & Stripes Softball Tournament Championship.

The tournament will be staged in conjunction with the city's 4th of July observance.

"We have six, but we were looking for eight teams to play in this year's tournament," said Keith Brothers, parks and recreation supervisor.

"We will accept any latecomers who want to compete in this tournament," Brothers added.

The first game is scheduled for 9 a.m. on the July 4th and will be conducted at the Elmer Johnson Park, located on Ozga Road.

Class C-D team managers who are looking for a holiday tournament to enter should contact the Romulus Parks and Recreation Department at 734-942-6852.

There is a $125 entry fee. Trophies will be awarded to the sponsors of the championship and the runners-up teams. Individual awards will also be presented to the individual players of those teams.

The tournament will culminate with a fireworks display in observance of the 4th of July. The fireworks will begin at 9:30 p.m.

Glenn golfer leaves a mark

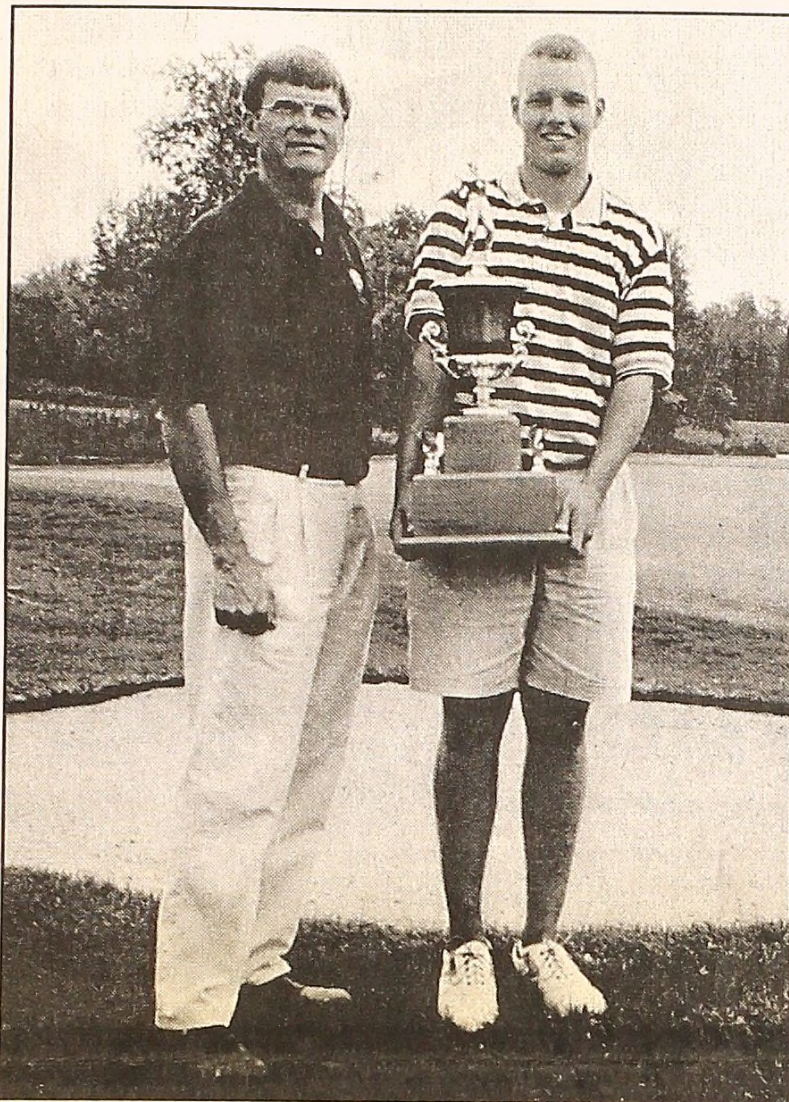

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Some say that Chris Tompkins is following in his father, George's, footsteps. Maybe.

But, then, maybe not. Undeniably one of the premier young golfers to come out of the area in recent years, Chris Tompkins is only one of four high school golfers who has been awarded a full-ride golf scholarship, and he is heading for Eastern Michigan University this fall to continue his college education and to compete on the field of his dreams for EMU.

Chris, 18, owns the Westland John Glenn record for nine holes at 34, set at the San Marino Golf Course in Farmington Hills, and he also has the Rockets' 18-hole record, a 71, established at the Huron Meadows Golf Course.

Chris also won the prestigious Traverse City Junior Collegiate Tournament title a year ago after shooting rounds of 75 and 74 for a 149 total, and he will be returning this weekend to the cherry producing capital of Michigan to defend his title. remarkable accomplishments for an 18-year-old, who admittedly learned his father's trade by watching him on the golf courses. George Tompkins was an annual fixture at the Western Wayne Golf Championships until recent years.

A year ago, Westland John Glenn's Chris Tompkins emerged as medalist at the prestigious Traverse City Junior Collegiate Tournament, and accepted from Traverse City High School coach Bob Lord, congratulations and the championship trophy. Tompkins will return next week to Traverse City to see if he can make it an unprecedented two in a row.

"One day I looked over and watched my son hit some balls, and I said 'Wow' he sure can hit them."

From that day, George Tompkins made sure his son had the tool of the trade.

Last weekend, in Georgia, competing in the National High School Championship where some 533 young golfers representing 48 states, Chris managed to finish 44 to earn prep All-American recognition.

"I'm really proud of him and his achievements," said George Tompkins, an avid golfer who never misses a tournament that his son is involved in. "I'm since him grow to the stature and, obviously, looking forward to what he will do with his game in the future."

Registration continues in City Golf Championships

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Registration continues for the 1999 City Championship Golf Tournament which will be staged Aug. 7-8 at the Woodlands Golf Course.

The annual summer classic is open to amateur golfers who live or work in the cities of Wayne, Westland, Inkster, Romulus, Garden City and Canton Township.

The 36-hole city tournament offers competitors an opportunity to qualify for the state finals, if a city decides to send the five-player team to the finals.

"We have not yet set a cut-off date for this year's tournament," said Jeff Rutter, tournament director. "But we are nearing that point because there has been a steady flow of inquiries and people who have already signed up."

"We like to hold the field to about 100 golfers."

Rutter, a Wayne Parks and Recreation Department supervisor, said some of the golfers have played in the tournament for the past 25 years. Others are newcomers to the challenge.

"As in the past, we will have Open Flight for non-residents

Morton is the defending champ. He has captured medalist honors for the past three years.

who wish to play, as well as a Senior Flight," stressed Rutter. "Over the years, this tournament has developed into one of the more popular events of the summer," Rutter added. "And I don't see that changing."

As he did for the 1998 version, Rutter will serve as the tournament director. He will have the assistance of long-time participant Gary Clark, along with Mark Morton and Keith Alexander.

Morton is the defending champ. He has captured medalist honors for the past three years.

Competitors will play 18 holes on the first day, Aug. 7, and return for the final round of 18 on Sun., Aug. 8.

The three top finishers in each of the flights will be awarded trophies. There will also be a special trophy presented for the overall winner of the tournament (medalist).

If case of a tie for a trophy, those involved will play a "sudden death" playoff to decide the winner.

Golfers representing the city of Wayne will also be competing for the Leonard J. Anderson Memorial Trophy, awarded by the Wayne Police Department in memory of Patrolman Anderson, who was slain in the line of duty in May of 1974.

To enter, competitors are requested to send their name, address, telephone number where they may be reached during the daytime hours, and entry fee to the Wayne Parks and Recreation Department.

The entry fee is $70 which covers greens' fees for both days and the costs of trophies. Make checks payable to the City of Wayne, Golf Tournament.

Please mail to - or drop off pertinent information at: Wayne Parks & Recreation Department, 4635 Howe Road, Wayne, Mich.

For further information, please contact Jeff Rutter at 734/721-7400 or MCN staff writer Tom Mooradian at 734/729-4000.

Great Lakes area Bearcats win regional hoop title

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Couldn't have had a better basketball tournament than the Bearcats did at the Great Lakes Regional American Youth Games staged over the weekend at the University of Michigan - Dearborn campus.

Coach Tony Quartuccio, a Wayne Memorial alumnus, and assistant coach Steve Shaw guided the 'Cats to a perfect 5-0 record and the title.

"We had a perfect series, and I am very proud of these kids," said Quartuccio, whose lineup included ninth and tenth graders, including Robichaud's Tron Thomason, who has a lot of potential, according to the two coaches.

Thomason scored a game high 16 points in the opening game which helped 'Cats stop a tough TNT team out of the Mt. Clemens area. The Bearcats managed to win the thriller, 46-45.

The 'Cats, basically a Garden City club, then went on to defeat the Wildcats, 55-46; the Motor City Bulldogs, 49-24; the Livonia Wildcats, 55-42, and the Full-Belly Bandits, 56-63.

"I do feel that the first-game challenge was our toughest one," said Quartuccio. "They (TNT) were very well-coached and disciplined."

Quartuccio's line up also included: Mike Nowotny, Bill Bringold, Jason Wright, Dave Loney, Nathan Shinerpunas, Brandon Audette, Demetric Crawford, Colin Sizemore, Ricky Warnock and Bobby Rogers.

The Bearcats will be on the road again July 21-25 when they travel to Detroit for the North American Youth Basketball National Invitational.

Canton All-Stars Eastern Division wins a thriller, 16-14

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

It was a classic - two natural rivals battled it out on the softball diamond on Saturday and when the smoke cleared the Eastern Division All-Stars claimed a thrilling 16-14 extra-innings victory over their counterparts in the Western Division in the Canton Township Junior Girls' Softball League All-Star Game.

"It was a great game that was settled in extra innings. There were no losers in this one," said one of the coaches.

Coaches from both the Eastern Division and the Western Division chose their line-ups for the summer softball classic.

The East went with Kimberly Beaudoin, Kaitlin Downey, Heather Duncan and Kaitlin McKinley. They drafted the following from the Marlins - Hannah Cavichio, Kimberly Keppen, Mechan Matheny and Elizabeth Thomas, while the White Sox were represented by Sarah Anthony, Lindsey Bennett, Katrina Cope and Madison Dresser.

The East Division line-up also included the foursome of Kelly Adsit, Stephan Brown, Alyssa Johnson and Jessica Stankewitz, from the Phillies.

The division-leading Diamondbacks formed the core of the Western Division. The Diamondbacks placed Lauren Delapaz, Amanda Leon, Jessie Martin, and Natalie Maurer on the All-Stars.

Also named to the Western Division All-Stars were Devil Rays' Melissa Leach, Bridget Lefevre, Danielle Pizzo and Chelsey Quinlan; Courtney Davis, Stephanie Sadek, Dana Storey and Kristen Warnick, from the Athletics.

The Braves were represented on the team by Danielle Bondy, Hannah Dillon, Melissa Plante and Amanda Sitco, and the Cardinals will have Kristi Durkin, Kaitlin Hoeft, Katie Osburn and Abbey Skrzypek.

In the meantime, the Diamondbacks widened their lead in the Western Division with a convincing 16-10 victory over

Gals' golf league play heats up

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Competition heated up last week in the Women's Suburban Golf Association as Diane Wazney fired a par 72 at Timber Trace Golf Course to score the medalist honors.

Wazney turned in with the low net for the day. Three-strokes back was Dearborn's

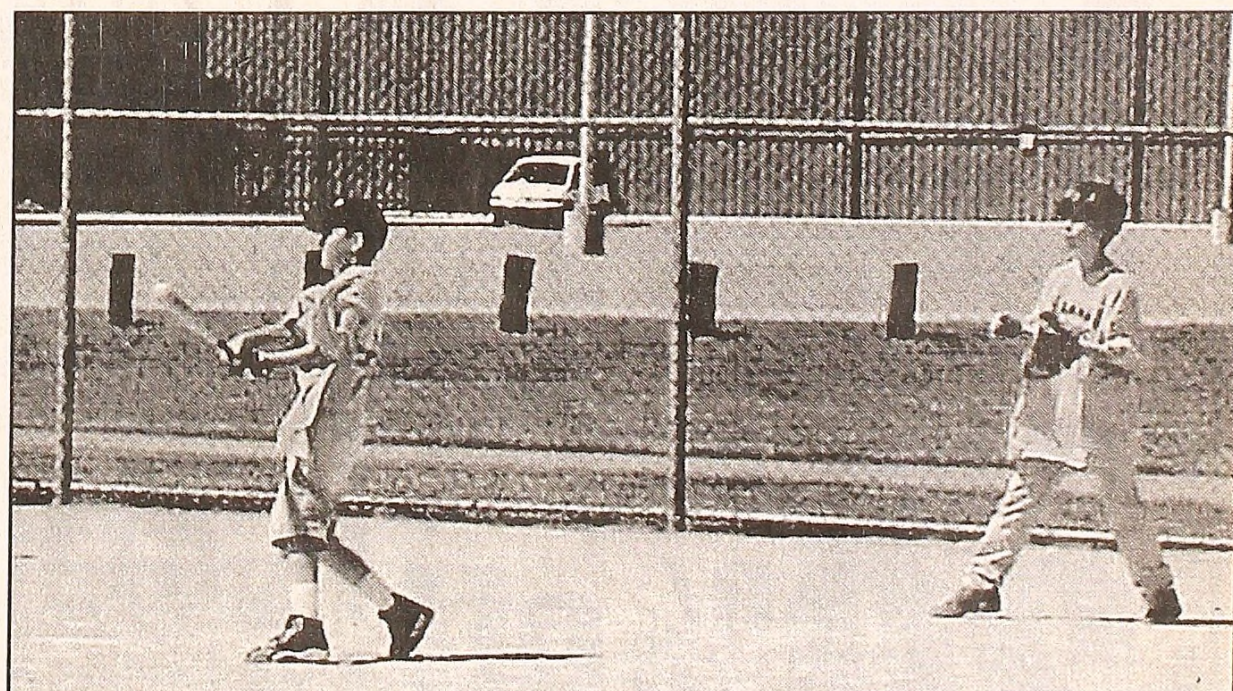

Mary Gene Stefanec.

Jo McVear carded the low gross for the First Flight as she finished the afternoon with a 85, while the second best gross low score went to Pat Meyers who had a 94.

In the meantime, Wayne's Pat Henke left the field with 70, the best low net score in the Second Flight. Just one stroke back was Dearborn Heights'

Helen Demshuk.

Lori Wilson, of Livonia, earned top honors in the Second Flight, Low Gross, competition as she rounded the course with a 95. Second best in that category was split three ways: Westland's Penny Irwin, Canton Town's Jan Nelson and Franklin's Bernie Evans also turned in 98s.

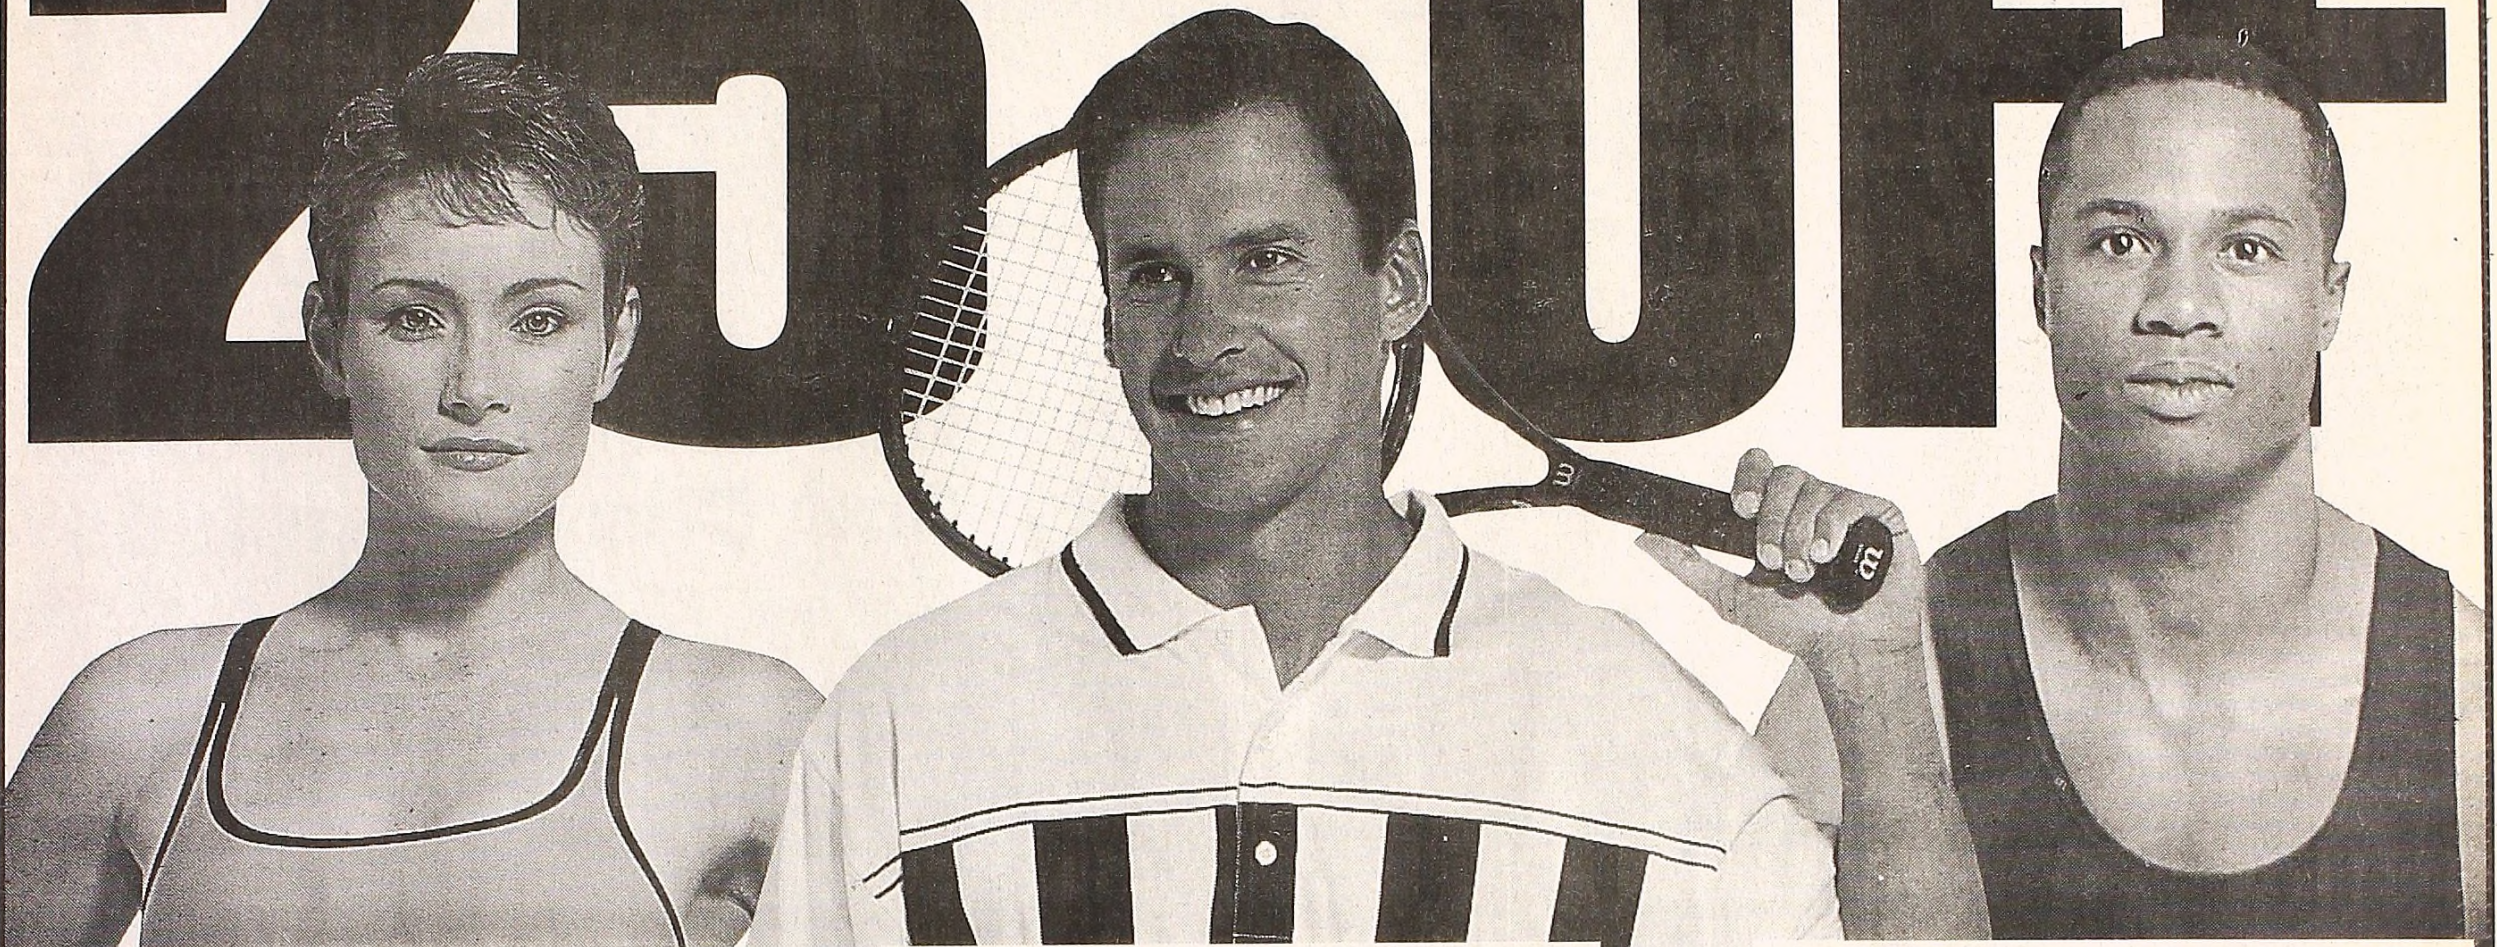

Play ball!

With school out, and summer in, and the heat on, the kids are flocking to the local baseball diamonds, as these future pros did in the city of Wayne's Parks and Recreation leagues. Coaches and managers may call in their team's scores to the MCN sports desk during regular business hours by dialing 729-4000. Coming up this week are the Ninth Annual Romulus Holiday Tournament, followed by the 23rd annual Leonard J. Anderson Invitational Tournament which will bring together 18 of the finest softball teams in the nation to Anderson Field in Wayne.

Softball 'King' to hold court

The "King" has arrived! Legendary softball great Eddie Feigner will bring his act to the Canton Softball Center next month.

Feigner, known as the King of the world of fast-pitch softball, will take on a local celebrity team at 7 p.m. Friday, July 2 on one of the fields at the Michigan Avenue complex.

The King has pitched over 11,000 games and shows and thrilled fans with his 100 mph pitches. After 55 years of striking out batters and interacting with players, Feigner's four-man team promises a night of excitement at the Canton Softball Center.

By the way, one of the newest additions to the King's Court is a product of the Plymouth-Canton schools. Anne Marie Dozbush (Feigner) now plays first base, switch hits and helps lead the tour.

This event also is a major fund raiser for the Canton Community Baseball and Softball Association (CC-JBSA).

Tickets are still available through the Canton Softball Center and possibly the CC-JBSA. Adult tickets are $5 in advance and $7 at the gate; student tickets are $3 in advance and $4 at the gate and family package tickets are $15 (this includes up to five children. Children under seven may be admitted for free.

For more information, telephone Ann Marie Caravallah at 483-5600.

Cheerleaders, where are you?

Westland Youth Athletic Association officials have put out a call for cheerleaders who want to help local teams win this year on the gridiron.

Registration for prospective cheerleaders will be conducted on July 7 through Aug. 5 at the WYAA Lange Compound.

For further information please contact Keith Demolay, WYAA publicist, at 734-722-1251.

Dolphins seek swimmers

The Wayne Dolphins kicked off their six-week summer swimming session this week with a big splash and high expectations.

And if you'd like to improve your swimming skills, it's not too late to join.

Youngsters, ages 5 to 18, residing in the Wayne-Westland school attendance area who want to improve their swimming ability and technique are invited to Dolphin tryouts.

There will be several swim meets during the summer session that will allow swimmers to compete against their peers.

Practice will be conducted in the mornings at Wayne Memorial High School pool.

For more information contact Ken Raub at 326-8595 or Jim McPartlin at 728-0349.

YMCA offers swim lessons

Speaking of swimming, the Wayne-Westland YMCA, continues to offer summer fun and a wide range of activities, including swim lessons.

Youngsters between the ages of six-months and 14 may register to swim. Class sizes are limited.

If you need further information about the program, or any YMCA program, contact the YMCA by dialing 734/721-7044.

Long to host hoop camp

There is still time to sign up for the Johnny Long basketball camp.

Long, a former Romulus High basketball star played his collegiate basketball for the one and only Dick Vitale at the University of Detroit before he went on to the NBA, will host a basketball camp for middle and high school players.

The girls' camp will be held on July 5, 6, and 7, while the dates for the boys' camp are July 8, 9 and 10.

The sessions will be held in the Romulus High School gymnasium.

Registration is $60 for boys and girls in the Romulus Community School District; $65 for non-Romulus students. (To verify school attendance, participants are urged to bring their report card or school ID with them at the time of registration).

Applicants may sign up for the camp at Romulus High School, Athletic Department office. Further information may be obtained by dialing 734/941-3414.

Sports Beat is compiled and written by MCN Staff Writer Tom Mooradian. Those wishing to contribute sports items for publication in this column may do so either by telephone (729-4000) or by FAX (734/729-6088) or by mail. Parade of champs

Romulus came close to joining elite club

Romulus came close - awfully close - to joining the 1998-99 Parade of Champions.

Coach Norb Glover's Eagles fell a handful of points short of winning the Division II Michigan Track & Field Championship. Romulus, with most of their runners back from an undefeated and regional title year, should be in the thick of the state title race a year from now.

In the meantime, the Michigan High School Athletic Association reports that their has been a continued high level of competition on the prep scene.

Eighty-five different schools won titles in the recently completed school year, two less than the 87 in 1997-98, the MHSAA reported. The continually high number of schools winning championships is primarily due to the competitive environment for high school teams around the state created by equal divisions in nine sports: including boys and girls Lower Peninsula golf.

The 1998-99 school year saw a total of 113 team champions crowned, an all-time high which is an increase of three from a year ago. Next year, the minimum number of titles will decrease to 109 when girls volleyball will hold a unified tournament, involving teams from the Upper and Lower Peninsulas, for the first time.

The schools which won their first MDSAA titles in any sport were: Detroit Mumford in Lower Peninsula boys track and field, Morrice in girls basketball, Whittemore-Prescott in team wrestling and Wyoming Rogers in softball.

In addition, there were 38 schools which won tournament titles in a given sport for the first time.

Sixteen of 85 schools winning in 1998-1999 took more than one crown. Marquette won five titles, while Ann Arbor Pioneer and East Grand Rapids won four championships apiece.

Marquette, Ann Arbor Pioneer and East Grand Rapids each won one unified tournament, Marquette claimed girls skiing, Ann Arbor Pioneer and East Grand Rapids won in boys skiing.

Five schools won at least three championships and eight won at least two.

Detroit Catholic Central led all schools with three championships in unified tournaments and Detroit Country Day claimed two unified tournaments.

Eleven of the MHSAA's 24 championship tournaments are unified, involving teams from the Upper and Lower Peninsulas, while separate competition to determine titlists in both Peninsulas is conducted in the other 13 sports.

The uniqueness in the 1998-99 high school athletic achievements this year includes: Marquette won its ninth consecutive Upper Peninsula boys swimming and diving title, the longest active streak in any sport; there was no repeat champion in any class in girls competition cheer for the first time in the six-year history of the event; and Grosse Pointe Woods University Liggett winning its 33rd MHSAA crown in Lower Peninsula boys tennis, surpassing Pickford's mark of total championships in a single sport of 32 in Upper Peninsula boys track & field.

Liggett's title total is a national record in boys tennis, while Pickford's 32 boys track crowns tracks second nationally.

rock and Justin Fendelet dominated the talented Western Lakes Golf Conference and, with the guidance of Rocket coach Dan Burka, made it to the state finals for the first time in the school's history.

Glenn finished among the top 20 teams in Class A, and Tompkins earned his All-State stripe with a 12th place finish.

An honors student who boasted better than a 3.5 grade point average, Chris Tompkins says he will be majoring in education at EMU and would be concentrating on Secondary Education.

And, what about the PGA tour?

George Tompkins noted that many of the past medalists of the Traverse City Junior Collegiate Tournament have found their way to the PGA.

"I don't know how far he will take his game," said the father of his son. "It takes a lot of mental and physical endurance. No matter where he goes, and how far he goes, I'm very proud of him."

the Devil Rays. The league leaders have won eight of their 12 outings and are 4 1/2 games up on their nearest opponents - the Cardinals and the Athletics who are 4-8 on the season. The Devil Rays and Braves have won three of their 12 games this season.

Over in the Eastern Division, the Phillies are in a tight race with the White Sox and the Blue Jays who continue to breathe down the leader's neck.

The Phillips remain atop of the division by virtue of a 10-2 record, but the White Sox and the Blue Jays are one game out with 9-2 and 9-3 records, respectively.

The Phillies, thanks to outstanding performances by Alyssa Mattei, who had a pair of doubles, and Stephannie Brown, who drilled two triples, buried the Marlins 21-9 in their last outing.

A fine defensive play, an over-the-shoulder catch by Melissa Butzow also highlighted the Phillies' victory.

A fired-up, shorthanded Braves club edged the Cardinals 7-5 as each member of the winning team contributed at least one hit. Excellent field by Melanie Marvos and Hannah Dillion helped the Braves win.

Kathie Osburn belted a home run to lift the Cardinals to a 9-8 victory over the Devil Rays in other action last week.
